It is with deep gratitude that I say thank you for the worshipping body at WNMC! Isaac and I have decided to start attending Stirling Mennonite with Josie to simplify and hopefully enhance our family worship. I look forward to staying in contact with Waterloo North and finding occasions to fellowship together.
-Will W.

Update from Marv and Ardith

We are grateful that the past week has brought a marked improvement to Marv's quality of life. He is up and active, and gaining more independence again. We are so grateful for the many gifts of prayers, visits, food and messages of support. Thanks be to God and to the extended community we are blessed to be part of.

FINANCIAL YEAR END JUNE 30TH!?! – Yes, you read right, June 30th is our new fiscal year end! Our best projections show that our expenses will be below budget. We need approximately $6,000 per Sunday in the next three weeks. Please prayerfully consider what God is calling you to give to the fiscal needs of our congregation. Come to the Budget Discussion after the service today for a more complete update!
